INSIDE THIS MINI PACK

5 Safe Splash missions | Coloring, tracing, counting, and family safety talk

AGES 3-5 | SCREEN-FREE

Mission 1: Grown-up first!

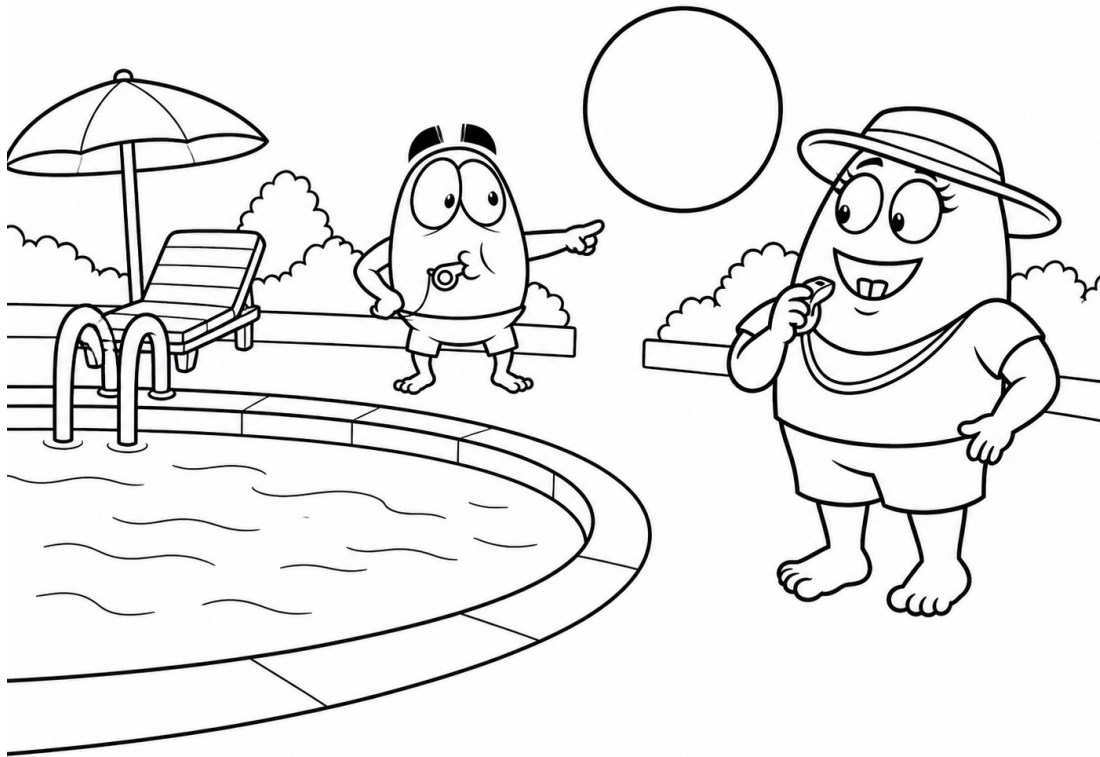

Coach Hiccup waits until a pool watcher is ready.

MISSION TRAIL

SAFE SPLASH MISSION

Find and circle the pool watcher. Then say the safety rule together.

Grown-up first. Then pool fun!

WHY IT HELPS

Recognizing the watcher connects a person to the safety rule.

TRY IT TOGETHER

Ask: Who is our pool watcher today?

Mission 2: Walking feet

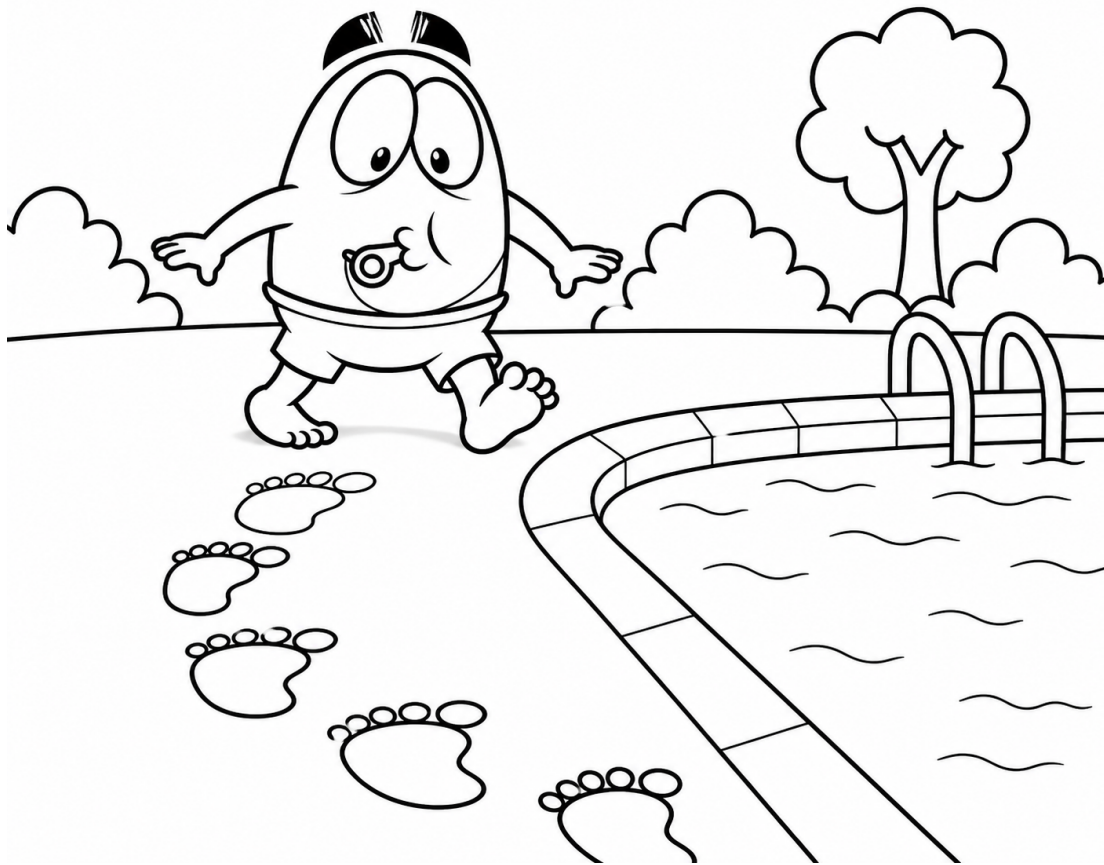

Slow steps help bodies stay steady near water.

MISSION TRAIL

SAFE SPLASH MISSION

Trace the footprints to Coach Hiccup. Say: Walking feet near water.

Walking feet near the pool.

WHY IT HELPS

Tracing supports hand control while reinforcing one clear action word.

TRY IT TOGETHER

Walk two slow steps together and say the rule.

Mission 3: Ready, set, wait

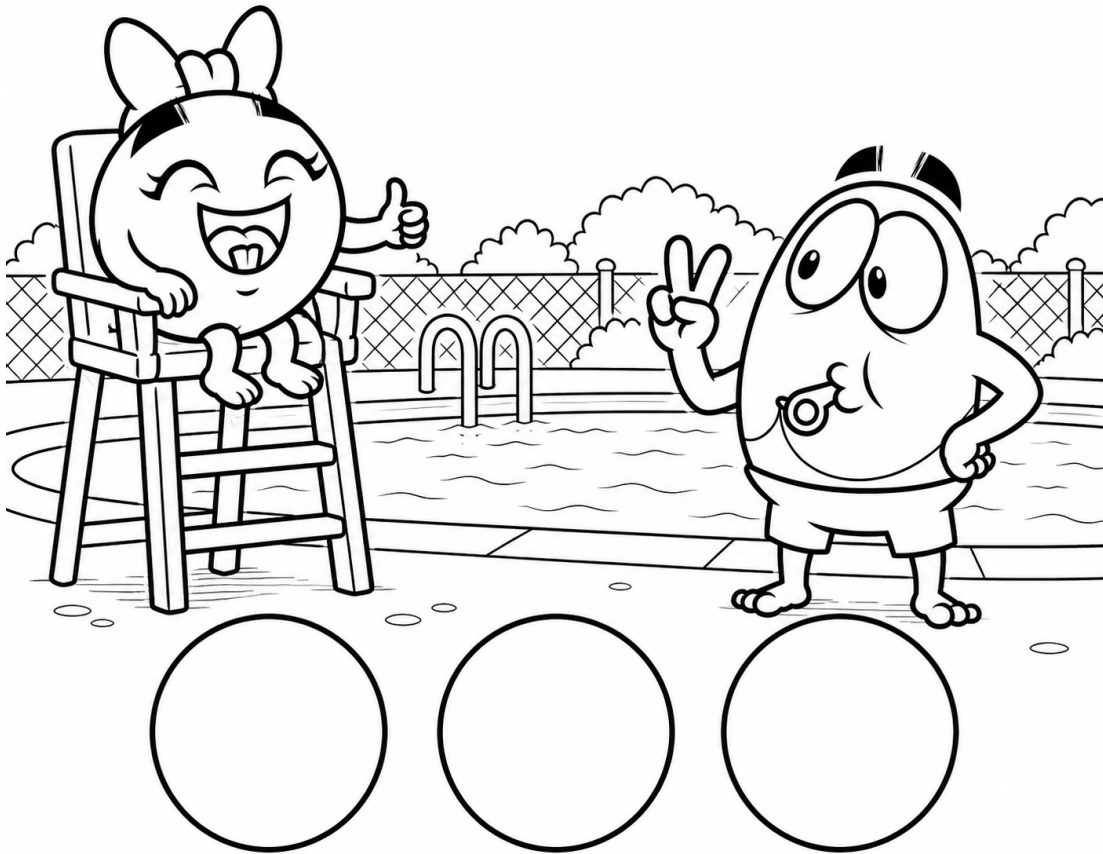

Hiccup counts, then listens for the grown-up's answer.

MISSION TRAIL

SAFE SPLASH MISSION

Color the three waiting circles. Count slowly, then listen for the grown-up.

Ask first. Count. Listen. Then move.

WHY IT HELPS

Counting creates a pause before action and gives children a repeatable routine.

TRY IT TOGETHER

Practice: Ask first. Listen. Then move.

Mission 4: My turn, your turn

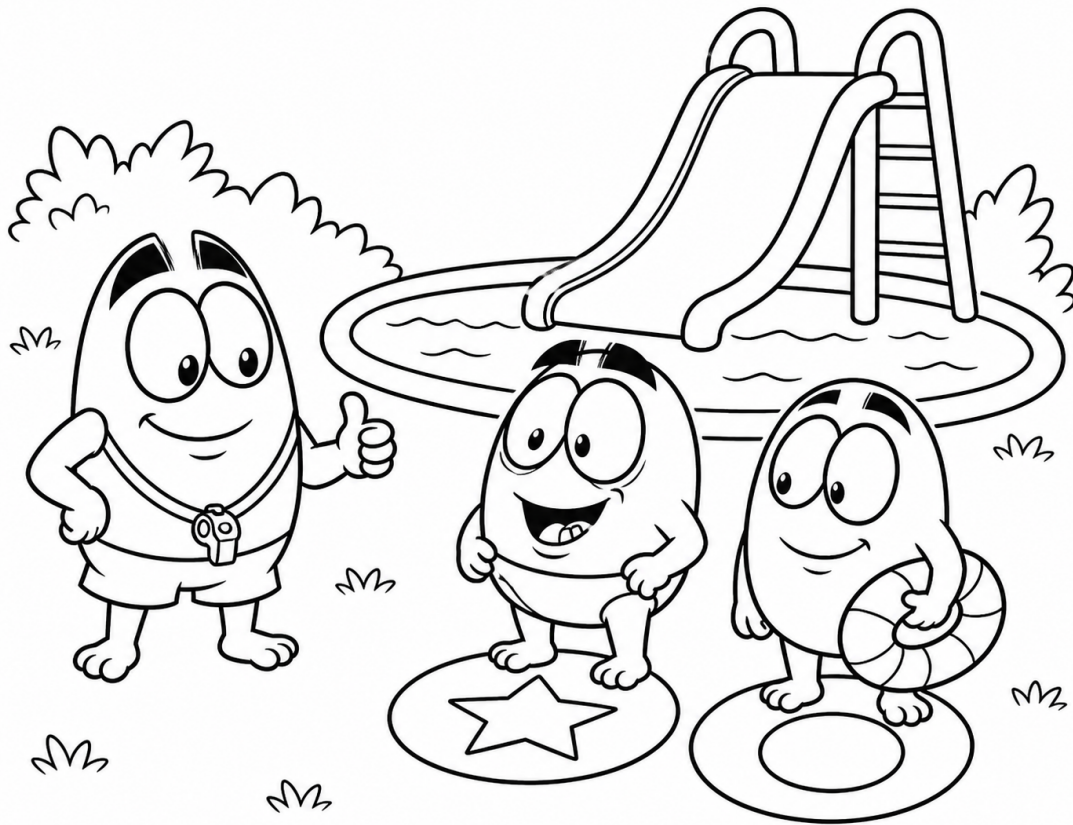

Coach Hiccup keeps the slide line friendly and safe.

MISSION TRAIL

SAFE SPLASH MISSION

Color the two waiting spots. Point to who goes first, then switch.

My turn. Your turn. One at a time.

WHY IT HELPS

Sequencing words support waiting, turn taking, and safer shared play.

TRY IT TOGETHER

Practice taking two pretend turns before swim day.

Mission 5: Find the safe exit

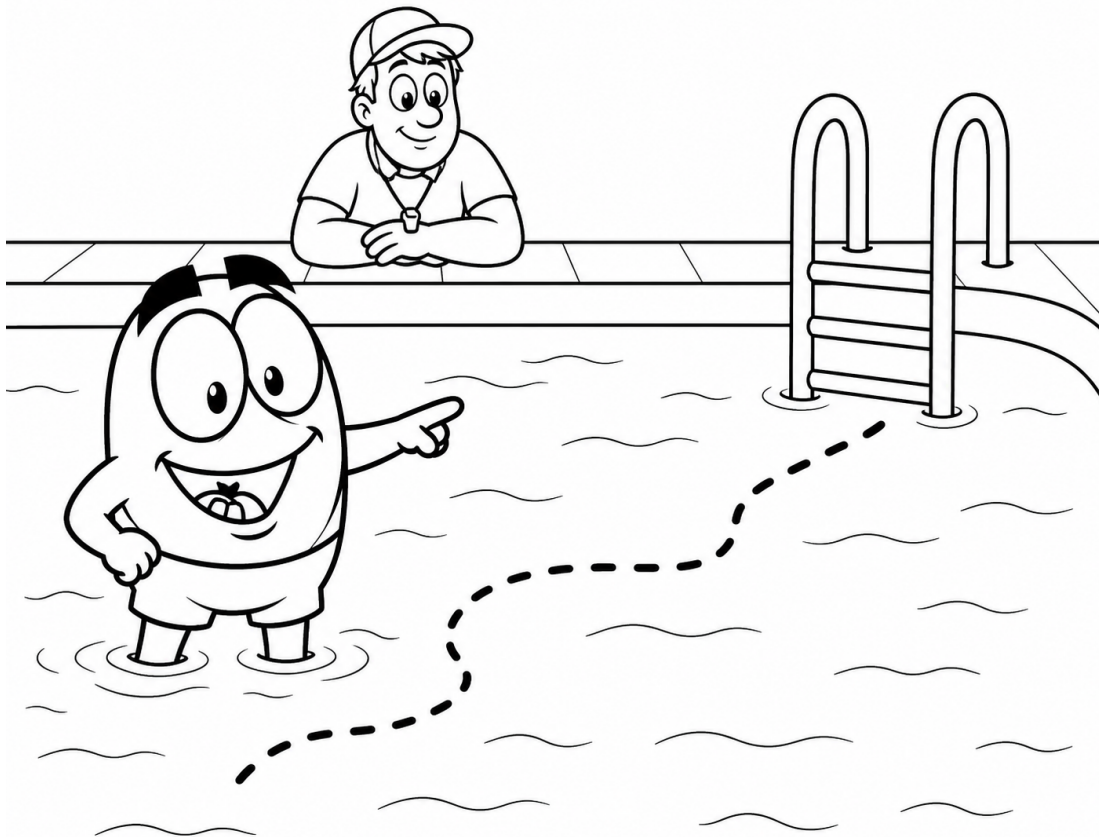

Hiccup always knows how to climb out before splashing.

MISSION TRAIL

SAFE SPLASH MISSION

Trace Hiccup's path through the water to the ladder.

I know my safe way out.

WHY IT HELPS

Following a path builds spatial planning while naming the safe pool exit.

TRY IT TOGETHER

At the pool, point out the real ladder or steps together.
